

Windy City Publishers

---

MEDIA CONTACT:

Kristyn Friske
Chief Marketing Officer

kristyn@windycitypublishers.com
312-899-6441

"A must read for the baby boomer generation."

"I opened The Last Perfect Summer, as a favor to a friend, and couldn't put it down until I was through. It transported me to a time and place I had forgotten, and I had to wonder just who I would be today without my own memories of childhood. I missed a night of sleep, but didn't care. It's that good. A must read for the baby boomer generation."

~Mark Razz
92.5 XTU Radio, Philadelphia

"I started crying in Chapter 32 . . . . And I haven't cried in twenty years."

"I started crying in Chapter 32, when the old coach got up to give his pep talk before the championship game, and never stopped until two hours after I finished the book. And I haven't cried in twenty years."

~Larry Kelly,
Radio Talk Show Host and Pennsylvania "Super Lawyer," New Castle, Pennsylvania

"Thank you for taking me home."

"Terrific, great, awesome!!! Absolutely wonderful.
I felt like I was back in Western Pennsylvania (circa 1960) the entire read.
Thank you for taking me home."

~Vinny Gioffre
Former "Rockland Boy"
Cerritos, California

"It actually made me long for the days when life seemed so much simpler."

"I loved The Last Perfect Summer. It not only captured the time period – the 1960s – so well, but also the essence of what childhood is (or should be). The relationships between the boys are so real, the friendships so pure that it definitely brought back memories of my own childhood and my friendships of that time. It actually made me long for the days when life seemed so much simpler."

~Veronica Pacella,
Director, Ellwood City (PA) Public Library